LONE STAR COMEDY CLUB

The Lone Star Comedy Club returns to the Lanterns in Folkestone on Saturday June 17th with EARL OKIN. KAREN BAYLEY, GRIFF GRIFFITHS and compere DAN WILLIS.

EARL OKIN is one of those rare performers ... a true original! Genuinely versatile, his talents range from that of a fine singer-songwriter (in styles ranging from chart orientated tracks to the cheesiest of jazz-standards, via authentic bossa-novas), to that of pianist, guitarist, world class jazz singer, as well as his standing as 'vocal trumpeter, trombonist and clarinetist'.

Added to all of this is his humour, sophisticated and witty enough to have made him perhaps the leading music and comedy act on the unforgiving London alternative comedy circuit.

Apart from appearances on British shows too numerous to mention, Earl has appeared at all the major London venues including the Royal Albert Hall, the Royal Festival Hall, the London Palladium, Wembley Arena, the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane and the Barbican.

Earl has appeared alongside everyone from Paul McCartney and Van Morrison to Benny Carter, Stephane Grappelli and Cleo Laine. He has entertained the Queen and Prince Margaret.

Finally, his one-man show has made his name a legend at the amazing Edinburgh International Festival where he has appeared over 500 times ... thus gaining a place in the Guinness Book of Records. Hew has also appeared at venues literally around the world. He has been described as a cross between Harry Connick Jr. and Victor Borge, but there is really only one .. Earl Okin.

KAREN BAYLEY began her comedy career back in 2000 and has since gone from strength to strength. Her bold, no nonsense attitude strikes a perfect pitch with men and women alike, and she is equally at home compering or performing sets. Karen is also resident compere of her own clubs in Sutton Coldfield and Solihull, her claim to fame to date being the first woman (in its history) to win the gong show at The Comedy Store. In 2004, she took a show to the Edinburgh Festival with Susan Murray, where she gained glowing reviews.

One of the fastest rising and hardest working acts on the circuit, DAN WILLIS is a quick thinking, fast talking stand-up comedian who can be seen at most of the premier comedy clubs and festivals in this country and abroad, having had sell out runs at both Melbourne and Edinburgh comedy festivals. He has quickly built up a reputation as a solid compere who can control a room and keep a crowd laughing throughout a night, no matter how long that night may be and no matter how many acts are on the bill.

Having started out as a Panelist on the Perrier Awards (after winning the TimeOut Edinburgh Festival comedy competition in 2001), DAN WILLIS has starred in and presented a number of Shows for network television including 'Kings of Comedy' and 'Edinburgh or Bust'. Dan has also worked tirelessly as a crowd warm-up person for shows such as 'Open House with Gloria Hunniford' where for six months he daily entertained a crowd of 80-year-old ladies without swearing or naughty sex talk - though his stand-up routine can switch effortlessly from clean to adult material depending on how the crowd want to go.

Tickets are £8 each or £64 for a table of eight on the main dance floor area. Tickets are available from the Lanterns itself or call Richard on 07810 864228 to book your place. Doors open at 8pm, with the show starting at 8.30pm.

This is the last comedy club night until Saturday September 16th as the club takes a break for the summer (festival) season.

NEW ALBUM FOR MORE THAN NORMAL

MORE THAN NORMAL have their "Honour Amongst Thieves" album out on Dent'all Records July 3rd (catalogue dent006), a re-recording of their previous releases with old favourites such as "Dynamite", "Where Has Paul Gone" and "Late Nights, Messy Mornings" and an extra previously unreleased track called "Ever Get The Feeling You've Been Cheated".

MORE THAN NORMAL play the Railway in Ipswich on Thursday June 1st, Dudley Arms in Rhyl on Friday June 2nd, Watson Hall in Tewkesbury on Saturday June 24th, 2Pigs in Cheltenham on Saturday July 1st, Beer Cart Arms in Canterbury on Tuesday July 4th and The Fighting Cocks in Kingston on Wednesday July 5th.

The Tewkesbury date on Saturday June 24th is an all-dayer with label mates SPUNGE, as well as CAFFIENE, FASTLANE, FAILSAFE, FANDANGLE, GUNS ON THE ROOF, SHORT WARNING and THE ALPHA METHOD.

MORE THAN NORMAL's sound is a fusion of the very best US punk (Blink 182, Green Day and Rancid) combined with a dash of good old UK street punk (Clash, UK Subs, Filth F.C.). Live, MORE THAN NORMAL are an awesome, high energy punk rock band that will get even the most jaded heads nodding! In today's climate of limp-wristed Busted clones and talentless teenage fame suburbia with mock California accents, MTN come through in a very welcomed breath of fresh air. Their on stage shenanigans and 'have a laugh' attitude has earned them rave reviews up and down the country.

For further information, visit www.morethannormal.co.uk or www.myspace.com/morethannormal

NEW WEBSITE FOR KINGSKIN

KINGSKIN unveil their new, improved website on Friday June 9th, with all new content, videos, pics, unheard songs and forums. Visit www.kingskin.com

The band play at the Peel in Kingston on Thursday June 15th, the Tap 'n' Tin in Chatham on Saturday June 17th, Filthy McNastys in Twickenham on Saturday June 24th, the Hand and Spear in Weybridge on Tuesday June 27th, the Watershed in Wimbledon on Wednesday June 28th and the Swanb in Wrexham on Friday June 30th.

NIC BENNETT

NIC BENNETT is a singer/songwriter playing passionate, intense and dynamic indie/folk music and has released his "Scared of Silence" as a single. His fusion of heavy/melodic guitars, punk dynamics and pop melodies has been turning heads across England and on his travels to Portugal and Spain. As experimental as Sugar Ros, but as accessible as Damien Rice, his intelligently crafted, honest pop songs have already been well received by Prestige Management (managers of Busted, McFly and Son of Dork). Nic has played on the same bill as the likes of Electric Soft Parade, Kid Galahad, One Finger Zen and Peter Brame (Fame Academy).

The single will be released through his independent NJB records. For more information, contact www.myspace.com/nicbennett
