LONE STAR COMEDY CLUB

The Lone Star Comedy Club sees return appearances from MARTIN DAVIS and JOSIE LONG on Saturday March 17th, along with compere CLYDE WEST and a newcomer's act.

Looking like some bizarre marionette tug-of-love struggle between Gerry and Sylvia Anderson, MARTIN DAVIS skids and bounces across the stage, strung up and tugged around by unknown forces, firing off a relentless rapid-fire assault that hits every corner of the room and kills 100% of all known hecklers stone dead. Going where mere joke-tellers fear to tread with his characteristic kamikaze bravado ("Go on, heckle me!") he walks the razor edge of audience participation, daring them to pick him off it.

His skill in warming up the chilliest rooms and turning the stoniest punters into soft putty in his hands makes MARTIN DAVIS a comic favourite. With enough nervous energy to power a small city, Martin is the Jolt Cola of the circuit. Advice would be: connect up with the microphone, shout 'Clear' and stand well back!

With residences in the Comedy Café and Comedy at Soho and regular appearances as the Comedy Store, Banana Cabaret and Up The Creek, Martin has built up a regular following in London. He also appears as the cameraman in the BBC production of Bulla, starring Ricky Grover.

JOSIE LONG has recently filmed an episode of Channel 4 comedy 'The Last Chancers' alongside Adam Buxton. She was the 1999 winner of the BBC New Comedy Award, but at just 17 was too young to drink the bottle of Champagne presented to her. Josie also came second in 'So You Think You're Funny'. She has recently graduated from Oxford University and is now back on the UK stand-up circuit. Although she is still very young, Josie's act is unnaturally far from girly adolescence. Her intense surreal rants occasionally subside to politely allow the audience to catch up, before she launches off excitedly on another tangent.

"One of Britain's bright new hopes of the comedy scene" – Sunday Times.

Described in 'Time Out' as experienced, which is an understatement, CLYDE WEST knows his comedy craft and delivers his excellent material in a punchy, slick style. He has performed all over the main London comedy clubs and excels in front of any audience. He is also a regular performer on the very successful 'Black Circuit' and has appeared on tv's 'Club Class'.

The performance and his persona are appealing and he is the resident compere of a comedy club in Essex. At a recent gig in Maidstone, "What's On Kent" described him as "side-splittingly funny". Clyde lives in Stratford, east London, and much of his humour comes from his surroundings

Tickets are £8 each or £64 for a table of eight on the main dance floor area. Tickets are available from the Lanterns itself or call Richard on 07810 864228 to book your place. Doors open at 8pm, with the show starting at 8.30pm.

IT'S GOING TO BE CHAOS

Punk promoter Vince Thorpe celebrates his 40th birthday with a gig at the Lanterns in Folkestone on Friday March 16th which sees appearances from SICK ON THE BUS, JESTER, LEFT FOR DEAD and VISUAL OFFENCE.

And the celebrations continue at the Clarendon Hotel in Deal on the afternoon of Sunday March 18th when there is live music from KONRAD & JACOB.

Visit www.chaos-collective.co.uk for further details and for tickets for the punk extravaganza which takes place at Pontins Camber Sands on the weekend of April 20-22 featuring the likes of COCKNEY REJECTS, NEVILLE STAPLES, GBH, VICE SQUAD, DISCHARGE, SONIC BOOM SIX, SPUNGE, JESSE JAMES, THE LAST RESORT and DON LETTS.

Tickets - £90 + booking fee for the whole weekend - can also be bought via www.jacktheladproductions.com

Also at the Lanterns this month are ONE DAY ELLIOTT, RED LIGHT RUNNER, SPRINGTIDE CAVALRY and HURST PIERPOINT on Friday March 9th; THE JONESES on Saturday March 10th; BATTLESKA GALACTICA on Friday March 23rd; and MORE THAN NORMAL, KINGSKIN and THE BOTTLENEX on Friday March 30th.

BE KEPT UP BY THE JONESES

Fresh from recording their new EP, THE JONESES play at the Lanterns in Folkestone on Saturday March 10th, at the Dublin Castle in Camden Town on Monday March 12th, at the Frenchman in Folkestone on Thursday March 15th and at the Cambridge Arms in Walmer on Saturday March 24th.

The band consists of Sean Hardy (lead vox & guitar), Dino Fowler (drums) and Jake Miller (bass) and offers fresh sounds, rousing choruses, punchy riffs and a certain mod bias.

A coach is running to the London gig and apart from a great night out, THE JONESES will give each fan at the gig a free copy of their latest EP, along with the usual badges and patches. An 'I was there moment'. For further information, visit www.myspace.com/thejonesesuk

GIGS FOR BATTLESKA GALACTICA

BATTLESKA GALACTICA support JESSE JAMES at the Forum in Tunbridge Wells on Saturday March 17th (as they did on a memorable night at the Leas Cliff Hall in Folkestone last May) and go on to play at the Lanterns in Folkestone on Friday March 23rd and at the Carling Academy in Islington on Sunday March 25th as part of FANDANGLE's record release party.
